Today's Sport Player: Roger Federer

Reporter: Congratulations on the win today, Roger.

Roger: Thank you.

Reporter: You are thirty-eight years old now, but you still win every game. Your opponent is only twenty-two years old. He's young and strong but still can't beat you. Can you tell us your secret.

Roger: Sure. I practice tennis hard every day.

Reporter: What time do you get up every day?

Roger: I get up at six or seven o'clock every morning. My wife prepares breakfast for me, my sons, and my daughters. We have it together. We have a lot of fun at the dining table, too.

Reporter: What do you do after that?

Roger: I go to the gym and exercise for two hours, and then I play tennis with a lot of players. After lunch, I still practice tennis.

Reporter: What do you do in the evening?

Roger: It's time for my family. I have dinner with them. My wife talks to me some great ideas about tennis games, too.

Reporter: That's cool. Your wife means a lot to you.
