Peter: Hey Tony. Have you heard of ChatGPT ? It is said ChatGPT is smarter than any other AI chat bot online.

I want to ask it to do my science homework.

Tony: It sounds like great news for students, but have you tried it in person? How true can it provide information?

Peter: Actually, I haven't. I just read some posts online and learned that it is a tool not only for students but for office workers.

Tony: ChatGPT is good at providing information which is easily found on the Internet and sounding true. But it fails to provide trustful information. Many people have challenged ChatGPT, asked some difficult problems of it and found this weakness.

Peter: This means, after I get the answer from ChatGPT, I still need to check it again and make some corrections. Then, it will become "my own" homework.

Tony: You got it. That's the meaning of how technology makes our lives easier and better.

dos and don'ts 可做和不可做的事 chat bot 聊天機器人 provide 提供 challenge 挑戰

1. What is the dialogue mainly about?

- (A) A smart way to use ChatGPT to help with homework. (B) Some dos and don'ts when people use ChatGPT.
(C) A quick way to finish homework. (D) A useful technology for both students and office workers.

2. Which is true ?

- (A) ChatGPT is able to do housework for people.
(B) Peter has tried using ChatGPT and shared his experience with Tony.
(C) ChatGPT is so smart that it only gives people correct answers.
(D) Either Peter or Tony believes that information from ChatGPT needs fact-check.

(3-5)

With the end of the Covid-19, people are planning to travel around the world again with the money they saved during the past three years. While many people are busy booking the flight tickets and hotels abroad, still others have different thoughts. A travel report which interviewed 16,000 people from 15 countries showed a surprising finding. The study said that 15% of South Koreans and 14% of Chinese and Americans, "never want to travel again". On the top of that, up to 35% of Japanese interviewed said they never wanted to leave Japan to travel.

There are many reasons for not travelling abroad. First of all, many Japanese had travelled inside their own country during the pandemic and then fell in love with its nature and history. They thought the sights of Japan are better than anywhere else in the world. Secondly, because of the hard time, the cost of flying and living is rising. Some people think spending money on nice hotels and restaurants in Japan is better than that in foreign countries. Still others think that travelling by plane is not green to the earth. So they choose not to take a trip to protect the environment.

pandemic 疫情

4. Which is NOT the reason that Japanese choose to travel in their own country?
 (A) Because of the beautiful scenery. (B) Because of the friendly people.
 (C) Because of the cheap hotels. (D) Because of the rich history.
5. Which is TRUE according to the reading?
 (A) People have made more money in the past three years, so they want to go travelling.
 (B) In the interview, there are more people who will not travel again in Japan than in South Korea.
 (C) The study showed that people who choose not to travel abroad again all love travelling in their own countries more.
 (D) The prices of hotels and restaurants in Japan are so cheap that everyone wants to take a trip to Japan.

Morning	Hiking		Drawing		Dancing
Afternoon	Hiking	Swimming		Swimming		Swimming

- (A) Dog walker. (B) Study buddy. (C) Car washer. (D) Garden helper.
8. James is talking to Molly about the chart on part-time jobs. According to the dialogue, which line shows the number of people who work as Dog Walkers? (A) A (B) B (C) C (D) D

Part-time Jobs from 2017 to 2020

James: Look at this line. I don't understand why the number of people who do this job is rising. People don't like this job before 2019, but it became the most popular job after that.

Molly: Perhaps it's because more and more people think it's a good deal to make money and enjoy the sunshine at the same time. All you have to do is take them out for a walk twice a day.
